

Problem Statement

While there are options available, students have trouble finding study groups without a general effort looking for one whether it be through classes or online.

Who?

Students who struggle with finding specific study groups and finding people with similar studying tactics.

What?

For some students, being able to study with other people is one the most efficient ways of understanding the material. However, being able to find a study group and finding people with similar studying strategies can be tedious and arduous.

Where?

This problem occurs when finding a group to study with. Some students are not as good at communicating with others when meeting new people. This can generate problems when trying to find study groups.

Why?

Studying is vital to having a good educational experience, understanding and knowing the material is as important if not more important than initially learning the material. There is also importance on getting help and helping when needed that can also significantly impact the understanding of the material. By having a way of easily assembling and communicating with study groups, the success of some students could be significantly impacted.
